SUMMER SCHOOL

Mrs. Neri presented the plan for summer school which will be held June 6-30, 2022 from 8:00 a.m. – 11:00 a.m. Locations will be PGE, UE MS and the HS. Budgeting estimates were also provided.

Elementary regular education is budgeted at $17,382.65 for teachers, para professionals, a nurse, secretary and an Administrator. ESL regular education is budgeted at $5,277.33 for teachers and a para professional. The focus will be on literacy and math. Special Education Preschool and Elementary has a budget of $17,061.68 for teachers, para professionals, a speech pathologist, transportation and benefits.

Upper Elementary has a budget of $7,179.37 for teachers, para professionals and an Administrator. Students that fail 1-3 classes will attend summer school, and students failing 4 or more classes will attend summer school and may be considered for retention.

Middle School costs will be $16,496.01 for teachers, para professionals, a secretary and an Administrator. Students that fail 1-3 classes will attend summer school, and students failing 4 or more classes will attend summer school and may be considered for retention.

High School's budget will be $8,406.30 for teachers, a para professional, and the Administrator stipend. High School students will be offered Summit Academy, an in-person option for those that need to recover more than two credits. Summit has a new Director and new summer programming. Educere will be offered as an online credit recovery option for students that need to recover one to two credits. Students will attend in-person at North Boone.

Other costs included nurses, instructional materials, transportation and benefits for an additional $44,393.91. Regular Education will come from ESSER III money, Special Education will be funded from Special Ed and local funding, and ELL will be paid from the bilingual grant.

K-4 LITERACY PILOT INFORMATION

K-4 Literacy materials will be piloted fall of 2022.

The resources selected for the pilot are Savvas MyView and Collaborative Literacy. Each teacher will pilot the same resource in the same trimester. Because K-4 literacy has so many materials, vendors are requiring payment for pilot materials. The costs for piloting is new, and if the amount exceeds $10,000.00, it will go to Board for approval. Tentative costs for pilot materials from Savvas MyView is $3,600. Collaborative Literacy has not yet quoted costs.
