NORTH BOONE HIRING CONSIDERATIONS

Teacher Candidate: Lawrence Watts

Resident of: Wheeling

Position to be filled: 5-8 P.E./Health Teacher

Education: B.S. in Interdisciplinary Studies from Illinois State University
Teaching Certification from Northeastern Illinois

Certifications: Type 10 K-12 Special Teaching; P.E. and Health

Qualifications: Highly Qualified: P.E. and Health

Merit and Ability: Mr. Watts will be joining our 5-8 grade staff with one year of teaching experience and several years of working as a para-professional, coach and/or athletic director. He knows current best practices in P.E., is a highly reflective teacher, and is highly collaborative. Mr. Watts is anxious to become a part of our staff as both a teacher and an extra-curricular sponsor.

Relevant Experience: P.E. Teacher: Hawthorn School District
Para-professional: SEDOL, Emmons School District
AD: Emmons School District
Coaching: Basketball—Hawthorn School District and Vernon Hills Youth Athletic Association; Baseball—Vernon Hills High School; General—Special Recreation Association of Central Lake County

Reference: Mr. Watts was recommended to us from his former principal in Hawthorn School District, Ms. Karen Cencula. She herself was a former P.E. teacher and was sad to lose him due to a reduction in force. He consistently volunteered for projects and attending evening family events.

Other Remarks: Mrs. Abbeduto and I were very impressed with Mr. Watts' progressive ideas and physical education philosophy. We believe he will be an outstanding addition to our team.

Salary Placement: BA, Step 0
