

Instruction

Administrative Procedure - Dissection of Animals

Actor	Action	Time
Curriculum Director	Identifies: (1) Determine which, if any, courses contain a dissection project, and (2) the available alternative projects. Reports this information to the Building Principal. “Dissection” includes cutting, killing, preserving, or mounting of living or dead animals or animal parts for scientific study; it does not include the cutting, preserving, or mounting of: (1) meat or other animal products that have been processed for use as food or in the preparation of food, or (2) wool, silk, glue, or other commercial or artistic products derived from animals. 105 ILCS 112/10. Students School Board policy, 6:100, Using Animals in the Educational Program, permits students who object to performing, participating in, or observing a dissection must to be excused from classroom attendance without penalty. 105 ILCS 112/.	Throughout the curriculum development process.
Curriculum Director	Determine alternative projects, if any, to dissection for those courses that contain a dissection project. Report to the Building Principal which, if any, courses contain a dissection project and the availability, if any, of an alternative.	Annually before course offerings and descriptions are distributed to students.
Building Principal	Ensures that course descriptions indicate which courses contain a dissection unit. For such courses, indicates that objecting students have the right to refrain, and the availability, if any, of an alternative. ISBE guidelines for notifying students, parents, administrators, and teachers are available at:  www.isbe.net/ils/science/mandates.htm.	Annually when course offerings and descriptions are distributed to students.
Guidance Counselors and Teachers	Reminds objecting Inform students to check consider the expectations and requirements of the post-secondary schools that they may be interested in attending. 105 ILCS 112/20(b).	Whenever a student can choose between dissection and an alternative program.
Students	If dissection is objectionable, asks the teacher to be excused from the dissection project and requests an alternative project, if one is available.	Within the first 10 days of the course, if possible.
All Staff Members	Do not penalize or discriminate against a student in any way for refusing to perform, participate in, or observe dissection.	Continuously

~~LEGAL REF.: 105 ILCS 112/1 et seq.~~

REVIEW: March 2006

AMENDED: