AUDIENCE TO VISITORS

There was none.

FUNDRAISERS

Plans were finalized for the Chili Cook-off to be held at North Boone High School on December 16th during the Boys' basketball game between North Boone and Harvard. There will be 4-5 cooking teams from the Poplar Grove, Capron, and Harvard fire and rescue squads. Formal judging for the event will be prior to the start of the game. Dr. Baule prepared a press release and flyer for the event. The to-dos are as follows:

- Gayle Kruckenberg will pen a script for the Spirit Club to follow when presenting the awards at half time of the varsity game.
- Chris Troller will distribute the press release and flyer to the other principals to send home with the students.
- Laura Zwart will distribute the press release to all CIC members.
- Dale Purvis will send the press release to the newspaper, TV stations, and AD at Harvard.
- Teri Kniep and Sammy Boyce will distribute the flyer throughout the community including the Poplar Grove bank.
- Teri Kniep, Laura Zwart, Ron Troller, and Sammy Boyce will sell tickets for the chili and ice cream.
- Kris Zwart will scoop ice cream and Teri will find additional help.

Sales will be from 5:30-8:00 or half time of the varsity game. The High School Girls' basketball team will have the option to have a bake sale during the game. Chris will follow-up with Ed Mulholland. All proceeds from the bake sale would go to the Girls' basketball team.

UPDATES

The murder mystery hosted by the North Boone Booster Club will be held on February 11, 2012 at the Poplar Grove fire station.
