Reflecting on success

Making learning more accessible

- Many students prefer auditory learning methods when they're absorbing new information or working through problems with a tutor. In light of this, we created Voice Typing, Text Reading and Voice Notes, so that students can put their best foot forward. These tools are particularly helpful for young learners, English-language learners, and students with physical limitations.

Bringing excitement to tough subjects

- Packed with fun visuals and a wide range of math questions, Paper Missions is a low-pressure game that lets students practice their math skills and acquire new knowledge—all at their own pace!

Meeting students where they are

- Students can quickly get unlimited support through our Chrome extension, Canvas integration, and our mobile app! By extending our presence beyond our web platform, we're ensuring Paper's 24/7 Educational Support System is available wherever students need it.

Creating future success

Every student deserves equitable access to the academic support that will prepare them for success in school and beyond. Unfortunately, many systemic barriers stand in the way for countless students. That's why Paper's mission is to ensure that every student has access to the resources they need to practice and master skills, receive individualized support across subject areas and prepare for their future in college or a career.

A commitment to literacy

- Literacy skills are foundational for lifelong success. This Spring, we're launching Paper Reading - a brand-new tool that drives literacy outcomes by listening to students as they read aloud and providing immediate, data-driven feedback.

Focusing on college and career readiness

- MajorClarity by Paper helps ensure every student's education leads to a successful career outcome—whether through a 4-year degree or going into the workforce. By connecting career "test-drives" to academic planning and postsecondary decision-making, students can set themselves up for long term success.
